Multimedia Appendix 3. Definitions of annotation categories.

tweet; original tweets that were part of a conversation and require greater context to be interpreted; or duplicated tweets from a user account that his since been suspended or was primarily being used for spam or unwanted solicitations. Not relevant Tweets that do not include information related to e-cigarettes. Sentiment: Indicates whether the stance in the tweet is positive, neutral, or negative towards ecigarettes and users of e-cigarettes. Positive Tweets that are in favor of e-cigarettes (eg, like, happy, uses words like "ge or #lovevape; boasting about e-cigarette use). Neutral Tweets not strong in either direction for or against e-cigarettes. Negative Tweets with that are against e-cigarettes (eg, don't like, not impressed, use words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL). User description: Characterizes the sender of the tweet based on information gleaned from the profile (eg, e-cigarette company, everyday user of Twitter, reputable news source). Celebrity Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or organizations Reputable news New sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appras "everyday use	Relevance: Identifie	es tweets that are related to e-cigarettes.
Sentiment: Indicates whether the stance in the tweet is positive, neutral, or negative towards ecigarettes and users of e-cigarettes. Positive Tweets that are in favor of e-cigarettes (eg, like, happy, uses words like "ge or #lovevape; boasting about e-cigarette use). Neutral Tweets not strong in either direction for or against e-cigarettes. Negative Tweets with that are against e-cigarettes (eg, don't like, not impressed, use words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL). User description: Characterizes the sender of the tweet based on information gleaned from the profile (eg, e-cigarette company, everyday user of Twitter, reputable news source). Celebrity Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people than have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or organizations Reputable news Sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appeas "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source.	Relevant	retweets that offered no additional information from the person posting the tweet; original tweets that were part of a conversation and require greater context to be interpreted; or duplicated tweets from a user account that had since been suspended or was primarily being used for spam or unwanted
Tweets that are in favor of e-cigarettes (eg, like, happy, uses words like "ge or #lovevape; boasting about e-cigarette use). Neutral Tweets not strong in either direction for or against e-cigarettes. Negative Tweets with that are against e-cigarettes (eg, don't like, not impressed, use words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL). User description: Characterizes the sender of the tweet based on information gleaned from the profile (eg, e-cigarette company, everyday user of Twitter, reputable news source). Celebrity Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association. Foundations or Organizations Reputable news New sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to apprais "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source.	Not relevant	Tweets that do not include information related to e-cigarettes.
or #lovevape; boasting about e-cigarette use). Neutral Tweets not strong in either direction for or against e-cigarettes. Negative Tweets with that are against e-cigarettes (eg, don't like, not impressed, use words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL). User description: Characterizes the sender of the tweet based on information gleaned from the profile (eg, e-cigarette company, everyday user of Twitter, reputable news source). Celebrity Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association. Reputable news Sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to apple as "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source.		•
Negative Tweets with that are against e-cigarettes (eg, don't like, not impressed, use words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL). User description: Characterizes the sender of the tweet based on information gleaned from the profile (eg, e-cigarette company, everyday user of Twitter, reputable news source). Celebrity Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association. Reputable news New sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appeas "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source.	Positive	Tweets that are in favor of e-cigarettes (eg, like, happy, uses words like "genius" or #lovevape; boasting about e-cigarette use).
words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL). User description: Characterizes the sender of the tweet based on information gleaned from the profile (eg, e-cigarette company, everyday user of Twitter, reputable news source). Celebrity Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association. Foundations or New sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appraise "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source.	Neutral	Tweets not strong in either direction for or against e-cigarettes.
Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association. Reputable news source Such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community movement Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source.	Negative	Tweets with that are against e-cigarettes (eg, don't like, not impressed, uses words like "hate" or #EPICFAIL).
have accounts verified by Twitter. Government National Institutes of Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Political figures, etc. Foundations or organizations Reputable news source Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from a about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	•	-
Political figures, etc. Foundations or organizations Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association. Reputable news source such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appeas "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Celebrity	Famous people in pop culture, people that are internet famous, people that have accounts verified by Twitter.
Reputable news sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journa Associated Press, etc. Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire movement timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Government Everyday people Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and followin reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev		Reputable organizations such as American Heart Association.
reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics are not primarily e-cigarette related. E-cigarette Groups or person whose timelines are primarily devoted to e-cigarette community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	•	New sources such as New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Associated Press, etc.
community conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire timeline of e-cigarette tweets). Retailers Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical). Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Everyday people	Twitter account with a reasonable amount of posts, followers, and following a reasonable amount of people with a timeline that spans a variety of topics that are not primarily e-cigarette related.
Tobacco company Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy). Bots/hacked Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appeas "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	community	conversations (eg, Women Who Vape, The Vape Club, John Doe with entire Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promotin cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appears "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Retailers	Outlets that sell e-cigarettes (online or physical).
cigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appear as "everyday users." Genre: Represents the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, market News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Tobacco company	Companies that manufacture e-cigarettes (eg, blu, Apollo, Njoy).
News/update Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Bots/hacked	Accounts that appear to be fake/computerized that are primarily promoting ecigarette products (or other products); most accounts are disguised to appear as "everyday users."
about relevant news from news source. Information Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product rev	Genre: Represents	the format of the tweet (eg, news or update, first person experience, marketing).
	News/update	Update about a current event from a reputable news source, or post from user about relevant news from news source.
, , , ,	Information	Factoid or resource, can be a personal blog or forum, or link to product review (posted by every day user or e-cigarette comm. Movement).

First person e- cigarette use or intent	Reports personal use of, intent, or interest to use e-cigarettes.
Second/third person experience	Reports someone else's use of e-cigarettes.
Personal opinion	Personal opinion related to e-cigarettes.
Marketing	Activities involved in the transfer of goods from the producer or seller to the consumer or buyer (eg, sales of e-cigarette products or accessories, job announcements, review of products posted by e-cigarette company/retailer).
Theme: Refers to the topical domain of the content in the tweet.
Cessation	Mention of using e-cigarettes to quit smoking cigarettes or other non-e-cigarette tobacco products.
Health and safety	Direct or indirect reference to health consequences of e-cigarette use.
Underage usage	E-cigarette use by minors, especially high school age or under, (only if proof the person writing the tweet or mentioned in the tweet is underage).
Craving	Desire to use e-cigarettes (eg, "Stressful day. Time for my #vapepen").
Other substances	E-cigarettes mentioned in association with other addictive substances, such as alcohol, caffeine.
Illicit substance use in e-cigarettes	Mention of using e-cigarettes for anything other than nicotine (eg, marijuana).
Policy or government	Mention of government or policy in relation to e-cigarettes including, regulation, deeming, bans, and restrictions.
Parental use of e- cigarettes	Tweet mentioning use of e-cigarettes by parents of the poster or parents of a person mentioned in the tweet.
Advertisement/ promotion	Ads for e-cigarettes, giveaways, samples, sales, direct links to seller's websites, word-of-mouth, and reviews.
Flavors	Tweet discussing e-cigarette flavors (generic or mixed, including menthol).	