

Supplement: Knowledge questionnaire

This questionnaire has been specifically tailored according to the topics addressed in the game (food pyramid, energy density, liquids, eustress and distress, coping with stress). The questionnaire had previously been evaluated in a pilot study. It consists of 13 questions. The answers for the items were transformed to scales ranging from 0 to 100. Subsequently sum scores were calculated and divided by the number of items resulting again in values between 0 and 100. The total knowledge test score includes all items, the dietary energy density score includes the items 3,5,7,9, the food pyramid score the items 1,2,4 and the stress score the items 10,11,12,13. The questionnaire is displayed at the end of the table.
